

Zarka Shabir Dsouza

ZARKA SHABIR DSOUZA is an associate at Outten & Golden LLP, based in New York and a member of the firm's Class Action and Individual Practice Groups. She represents clients in a range of misclassification and wage and hour lawsuits.

Ms. DSouza joined the firm in 2024 from White & Case LLP, where she was a member of the firm's antitrust practice. During law school, she was a law clerk at White & Case, where she worked on a range of bankruptcy and international arbitration matters.

Ms. DSouza earned her J.D. from Harvard Law School in 2022, where she served as Articles Editor and Symposium Chair for the Harvard Human Rights Journal. She received the Chayes Fellowship in her first year and was a law clerk at Reprieve UK. At Reprieve, Ms. DSouza worked on death penalty litigation and advocated on behalf of individuals formerly detailed at Guantanamo Bay. She was also involved in Harvard's International Human Rights Clinic where she co-authored an amicus brief on behalf of legal history scholars in the U.S. Supreme Court case, Nestle USA, Inc. v. Doe.

*(Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.)